

CPA Congress 2009

The 70th annual research lecture

VIC

Research that informs the standard setting process

Monday 12 October | The University of Melbourne | 6.15pm – 7.15pm

Our presenter, Professor Mary Barth, is a member of the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). Her research focuses on financial accounting and reporting issues, particularly topics of interest to accounting standard setters.

This lecture will consider the various financial reporting issues that the IASB has had to evaluate in recent times with a focus on specific issues like fair value and the effects of globalisation.

The University of Melbourne and CPA Australia's annual research lecture was established to promote and stimulate research and encourage original contributions to accounting.

Presenter

Professor Mary Barth is Joan E. Horngren Professor of Accounting and Academic Advisor to the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). She is a member of the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), has been an Associate Editor of The Accounting Review and is on the Editorial Boards of several other academic journals. She is a recipient of the GSB's MBA Distinguished Teaching Award and PhD Faculty Distinguished Service Award.
